B. Search and Seizure of Electronically Stored Information

The items to be seized from the Subject Premises include any computer devices, storage media, and related electronic equipment that may contain or constitute fruits, evidence, and/or instrumentalities of the Subject Offense falling within the categories set forth in Section I.A above. In lieu of seizing any such computer devices, storage media, and related electronic equipment, this warrant also authorizes their copying for later review.

To facilitate this review, the items to be seized from the Subject Premises also include:

1. Any items or records needed to access the data stored on any seized or copied computer devices, storage media, and related electronic equipment, including but not limited to any physical keys, encryption devices, or records of login credentials, passwords, private encryption keys, or similar information.
2. Any items or records that may facilitate a forensic examination of any seized or copied computer devices, storage media, and related electronic equipment, including but not limited to any hardware or software manuals or other information concerning the configuration of the seized or copied computer devices or storage media.

3. Any records or other items which evidence ownership, control, or use of, or access to any seized or copied computer devices, storage media, and related electronic equipment, including but not limited to sales receipts, warranties, bills for internet access, handwritten notes, registry entries, configuration files, saved usernames and passwords, user profiles, email contacts, and photographs.

Any materials seized under this Section II.B that are later determined not to contain or constitute fruits, evidence, and/or instrumentalities of the Subject Offense falling within the categories set forth in Section II.A above will be returned to the Subject Premises within 60 days of their seizure.

C. Use of Fingerprints and Face

During the execution of this search warrant, law enforcement personnel are authorized to press the fingers (including thumbs) of COOLIDGE to the fingerprint sensor of any smartphones seized in connection with this warrant for the purpose of attempting to unlock the devices in order to search the contents as authorized by this warrant. During the execution of this search warrant, law enforcement personnel are authorized to have COOLIDGE remain still and look, with eyes open, at the camera of any smartphones seized in connection with this warrant for the purpose of attempting to unlock the devices in order to search the contents as authorized by this warrant.
